lovedVon AriaThis book was in my top ten best reads, opening my eyes to a lot I really did not know beforeThank you for such a great read1 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Der Kreis schliet sichVon Yolanda la BrujaNatrllich kann die Protagonistin nicht gleich auf den ersten Seiten sterben. Aber wie sie davor gerettet wird, ist durchaus lesenswert und Irene ist danach noch lngst nicht aus dem Schneider. Gut, dass sie mchtige Verbndete hat!Lady Irene hat sich zwar in die Sklaverei verkauft, doch in ihrem Inneren ist sie nach wie vor Aristokratin. Als solche schafft sie einen Przedenzfall, von dem zu hoffen steht, dass die gesamte Sklavenkaste davon profitieren wird. Der soziopolitische Aspekt ist in diesem Band am strksten; die erfundene, aber in sich sehr kohrente Gesellschaft wird in weiteren Details beschrieben und erklrt, bis hin zu einer mglichen Vernderung. Jedoch kommen dabei weder die Erotik noch die Spannung zu kurz Irenes Leben als Sklavin mag viele Nachteile haben, aber Langweile geht garantiert nicht dazu. 5 Punkte fr einen gelungenen Abschluss!

KurzbeschreibungI don't know what to call Irene any more. Slave Irene? Lady Fortson? It's terrible. Sir Drake wants her dead. Our husbands just want her. And heaven knows what Lord Fortson wants. She's plotting and planning like a mad woman. She's not just trying to survive, she's trying to change everything. You must have heard the stories they tell about her. She's hanging around with professors at the university. She keeps meeting with lawyers. I hear that she's not just giving them sexual service like a good pleasure slave should; she's doing business with them. Involving them in her wicked plots. A slave had no right to do business with anyone. On top of all that, she's been hanging out with some of the most depraved aristocrats in the peerage. You know who I mean. The ones we don't socialize with. Most scandalous of all, she's trying to get the most respectable ladies in town to start behaving as badly as she does. It's beyond disgusting. The worst of all, she's writing about it in her books. Telling every sordid, disgusting detail. It's awful. Just awful.KurzbeschreibungI don't know what to call Irene any more. Slave Irene?
