more. After having finished it, I was quite disappointed. Judging from the book description Tate was supposed to be an independent super-cool young woman and Jared the man to fight for her. Well, the fight did not take up more than two days. Instead of being independent and "someone new", Tate was an insecure girl who dated a guy she knew from high school so she could be the one "in control". Yeah, that's what women do to prove how cool they are! Then Jared came along and she fell back into his arms in no time. Great. That's about it. There was an epilogue which I did not like much, either. But altogether, it was okay, just nothing special.
