these books, they're friends of the rich and influential James Cavendish and though they seem to love each other, they have a lot of issues (which I don't want to talk about in detail because the first book in the series doesn't get there yet). And if I wasn't a fan of Lilley's writing before, I certainly am now. I loved this book! It was just so wonderful and sweet and heartbreaking. I don't fall in love easily with male characters like many other girls swooning over their hordes of book boyfriends (which is sort of adorable I think). But I fell hard for Tristan. Right from the beginning, he had my heart in a grip and didn't want to let go. He was so amazing, being a house guest on the couch of a loving family with two kids and their nanny Danika. Tristan, of course dangerously hot, offers to make breakfast for her, he folds laundry with her, walks the dogs, watches the children and just because he wants to. Because he likes spending time with her. I think Tristan's very empathic and an incredible observer. He finds out quickly what Danika likes and how she thinks. It's amazing for a man to be so understanding. Danika was great, too. She gave in to his pressing and starts to live in the moment with him. It's hard for her to give up control and overthink every situation but she learns how to do exactly that. Even though they quickly agree to be friends, Danika doesn't stand a chance... not even for a second. But honestly, who could have? *sigh* But in the end, I couldn't understand her insecurity. Why does she ever need to hear those specific three words when everything else he says makes his feelings so crystal clear? It's a bit narrow-minded I think. I felt sorry for Tristan, but then I found out he wasn't perfect either. I loved the way their relationship developed, it was very natural. In the first half of the book there was almost no sex involved. Then it was almost a bit too much in the second half. I also didn't appreciate all those repetitive scenes, e.g. the embarrassing displays of both character's jealousy. But that hardly spoiled all my reading fun. I'm usually a very patient person but damn I want to read the next book Rock Bottom right now! I'm a hundred per cent sure it will be mind-blowing and having lots of danger and trouble in store for my man Tristan, oh and yeah his girlfriend. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Intensive Liebesgeschichte Von Merle Diese Liebesgeschichte mit Folgebchern spielt im der heissen Wstenstadt Las Vegas. Die 21-jhrige Danika arbeitet neben dem Studium als Nanny bei einer Anwaltsfamilie. Als der Arbeitgeber den aufstrebenden Musiker Tristan nach Hause nimmt, verliebt sich Danika in ihn. Er aber steht zwar auf One Night-Stands, aber nicht auf Beziehungen. Wir erleben intensiv den Beginn einer grossen Liebe mit allen Tiefen und Hhen, Glck und Verzweiflung, viel Sex und schnen erotischen Szenen. Die Geschichte ist gut geschrieben, sie wird nie langweilig, unterhlt gut. Doch bleibt das Ganze zu sehr auf die Beziehung der Beiden fixiert, ich htte gerne mehr Einbettung ins Leben. Empfehlenswert fr Romantiker. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Intense, extreme and HOT as hell Von Cassandra Holy S****!!! The relationship between Danika and Tristan is intense, extreme and HOT as hell!!! one second you feel for her and he is the asshole... and then it's the other way round! this is a rollercoaster ride with a teary cliffhanger ending and I can't wait for the second book to be out soon. PS: HELLO Mr. Cavendish again :-P ;-)

Kurzbeschreibung "A masterpiece! Tristan and Danika have a story told so realistically by R.K. Lilley, you'll ache for them in BAD THINGS, and have a hard time remembering this is a novel. A very well written novel at that. Off the charts sexy, soul-baring emotion, and explosive chemistry between the two mix together here into pure literary gold. BAD THINGS is a beautiful thing!" ~Raine Miller NYT's Bestselling Author of The Blackstone Affair Danika hasnt had an easy life. Being insanely attracted to bad boys has never helped make it easier. One look at Tristan, and every brain cell she possessed went up in smoke. This man was trouble with a capital T. It was a given. She knew better. Bad boys were bad. Especially for her. Considering her history, it was crazy to think otherwise. So why did crazy have to feel so damn fine? For as long as she could remember, Danika had been focused on the future with single-minded purpose. Tristan came along and taught her everything there was to know about letting go, and living in the present. She fell, hard and deep. Of course, that only made her impact with the ground that much more devastating. Bad Things is about Tristan and Danika, and their train wreck of a love story. This series can be read as a standalone, or with the Up in the Air series. Bad Things is a full length novel, at roughly 105,000 words. This book is intended for ages 18 and up. intended for ages 18 and up.ber den Autor und weitere MitwirkendeR.K. Lilley lives in Texas with her husband and their two beautiful sons. She's had a lot of interesting jobs, from being a first class flight attendant, to being a stablehand, but swears she never knew what hard work was until she had children. She's been addicted to both reading and writing fiction since she can remember. She loves to travel, read, hike, paint, game, watch anime, and make the most of every single day. She is the author of In Flight, Bad Things, and Breaking Him, to name a few. She is currently hard at work on her next contemporary erotic romance and the second book in her urban fantasy series, Crossing Fire.
