Von J. S. Scott : Billionaire Unmasked ~ Jason (The Billionaire's Obsession, Book 6) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Billionaire Unmasked ~ Jason (The Billionaire's Obsession, Book 6):

On one hand desperately trying to keep her secrets by living a secluded life far away from her overbearing brothers but on the other hand feeling lonely and lost because of the separation from her family. Longing for Jason who also has shown his tendency to overbearing behavior in the past does not really seem very consequential on Hope's part either, while she tries to escape her brothers. Jason seems to be a more or less bi-polar personality himself. Alpha, know-it-all, protective on one side and caring and tender on the other. I found it hard to really find something to like about both protagonists in this story. Furthermore the story is a entirely unrealistic - and I mean even more than the Billionaire plots are anyway. From my point of view it is entirely unrealistic that Hope lives her life the way she does (both with respect to her private life and her job) without anybody of her overbearing brothers finding out about it and the events in her past which still massively impact her present life. And entirely impatient Jason being able to cure Hopes traumata within a couple of nights does not really add a touch of realism to the plot either. Apart from that the book seems to be put together in a hurry and with a lack of accuracy. In "The Billionaire's Angel" (the story of Hope's brother Grady and Emily published in the collection "A Maine Christmas or Two") Hope dismissed the prostitutes sent to Grady by Evan, whereas here she refers to Jared as the one sending whores to Grady. All in all a bit of a frustrating read considering the quality Ms Scott is able to deliver in her work otherwise with too many annoying curves and edges keeping me from entirely getting carried away by the story. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Das Buch war erstaunlich, und ich es total genossen!! Von Karen Alleyne Frau Scott hat es wieder !!! Das Buch war erstaunlich, und ich es total genossen. :) Ich wurde zum ersten Mal in der Milliardär Angel (Grady Story) und je nach Jason eingeführt, seit ich durstig gewesen mehr von ihm. Ich liebe die Alpha-Männchen bereit Kontrolle zu übernehmen und gehen den Abstand, die Liebe der Frau zu gewinnen, sie glauben, ist ihre Seele Kamerad. Und die Hoffnung, diese Rolle in jeder Hinsicht erfüllt, sie hat viel und doch durch, aber nach und nach Frau Scott. allow sie bewegt genau im richtigen Tempo auf ihrem Weg zur Genesung war und erlaubt der Liebe zu geben .... Frau Scott ist ein erstaunlich begabter Schriftsteller, die ich nicht zögern, zu kaufen, da ich weiß, dass es gut sein wird! Und jetzt bin ich hungrig nach Tate
