page-turner... Von LittleDarling I don't know how Elizabeth Hunter does it?!?! How one person can have this incredible amount of talent and creativity is beyond me. But this woman definitely does. I haven't read a single thing from her that didn't floor me. And Blood and Sand is no different. Another instalment in the Elemental World series it follows Baojia, the vampire that helped Gio and B in their story and Natalie, a crime reporter that stumbles into the vampire world. I was very excited for this book as Baojia was one of my favourite characters in the other books. His controlled, collected and responsible approach to things has always fascinated me, knowing that there is more underneath this rather cold exterior. Blood and Sand proved me right and introduced us to a Baojia that is fiercely loyal, loving and caring. Someone that never received the love and appreciation that he deserves. Someone that is willing to do anything for the ones he loves, someone that has so much passion and fire bottled up. When it finally breaks out, he is a force to be reckoned with. Not to mention he is hotness and steaminess on two legs. His calm and collected nature is clearly tested by Natalie, who is stubborn, passionate, ambitious and when she realizes that something illegal might be going on, she is like a little bulldog biting into your leg. Through this all she is such an adorable and strong female character. This is what I love about Hunter's writing. She always writes strong women, not in need of being saved. Not needing a man to be happy and not giving themselves up. The book has everything you want in a read: romance, steaminess, humour, mystery, crime and suspense. Especially towards the end it gets so suspenseful, I am surprised I still have finger nails. I can't say it often enough: I love Elizabeth Hunter's writing. She never disappoints and still manages to surpass the already high expectations.

Fr mich ihr schlechtestes Buch Von Snepius Ich habe mit Begeisterung die Elemental Mysteries gelesen und mit noch mehr Begeisterung die Irin Scibes Reihe. Aber dieses Buch wirkt fr mich dahingeschludert. Baojija, den man aus den frheren Bchern kennt, wirkt seltsam blass und die Protagonistin Natalie ist die unsympathischste "Heldin", die mir je untergekommen ist. Obwohl immer wieder betont wird wie smart sie sei, wirkt sie fast durchgngig wie ein eigensinniges Kind, das jeden Moment mit dem Fu aufstampft und ruft "Will aber!" Auch das Eingangsszenario, wie die beiden aufeinander treffen, wirkt geknstelt. Eine Freundin von Natalie gibt ihr fr Recherchen in einer seltsamen Mordserie den Namen von Baojija, obwohl die Vampirwelt geheimgehalten werden muss und Natalie Reporterin ist. Hallo? 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. uerst zu empfehlen Von Keyja Da in anderen Rezensionen bereits auf den Inhalt eingegangen wurde, werde ich diesen nicht wiederholen. Die Autorin hat es aber wieder geschafft, mich zu fesseln. Als ich mit dem Buch fertig war, habe ich gleich nochmals von vorne angefangen. Elizabeth Hunter gelingt es hervorragend ihre Figuren herauszuarbeiten und in eine spannende Geschichte einzubinden. Ich freue mich schon auf ihr nchstes Buch!

Kurzbeschreibung Power, passion, and politics collide in an Elemental World that is ruled by the ancients. Dead women are showing up in the Mojave Desert, but water vampire and feared enforcer, Baojia, is stuck entertaining the rich and clueless at a club in San Diego. He's taken exile with all the grace he could muster, but patience with his sire is starting to thin. When a story about dead women in the desert comes to the attention of reporter Natalie Ellis, she can't help but pay attention. Are these women the victims of a serial killer, or something even more insidious? Sparks fly when mortal and immortal are thrown together. Pursuing the truth could cost Baojia everything, including the mortal woman who has earned his grudging respect.
