hmmmm... HUGE CliffhangerVon S PI really loved Liam and Lees story. It was heartbreaking and beautiful. But:
the story ended with a HUGE cliffhanger.This is a big no no for me. It always feels as if the writer is pushing the next book at me. Guess what? If I love the story I will be looking for more from this writer, so no need to do this.. As 'Consolation' is part of a series I would have been more than ready to buy the next book and see what happens with the other guys. This way I am disapointed and although I would love to know how the story ends ... I am done.0 von 0 started book 2, otherwise I would run nuts by this ending!An amazing written book, I laughed and I cried with Lee and Liam.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. STUNNING! AMAZING! BEAUTIFUL!

HEARTBREAKING!Von CassandraMy emotions are all over the place and I never cried so much reading a book, straight from the beginning. There was rarely a page that I didn't cried, but at the same time there were these laugh-out-loud and sweet moments.Corinne Michaels has this great talent to make you feel what the character feel...their pain, their love, their lust. Lee is left alone with a newborn after her husband died in war. She's dealing with her life mostly because of her sweet daughter. Living, well living she's not so much. Not until Liam enters her world and is determined to show her how to feel again.Liam has been teammates with Aaron and not only has to deal with his loss as well, but also with some rising feelings for Lee. Everyone knows that the wife of another soldier is forbidden, right?
But what when you can't keep the feelings for her and her daughter kept secret and don't want to?Corinne Michaels shows what grief does to a person and how much it influences everyone around. And yet she shows that it takes the right person with the right amount of determination to help healing with the grief. Not in the means to forget a loved one, but to accept and move on.But then life never goes as expected. And through the last chapters I had a feeling that THIS would happen.It's been a long time since I want to go straight to the next book. Thankfully Conviction was out already.PS: The couple on the cover is covering Lee and Nat so perfectly and the pics from this shoot are all beautiful and amazing.
