book. First of all, the Prologue had me in tears. When I've read the Prologue I couldn't believe such few lines could make me feel so emotional without being close to the characters yet. I knew I had to read this book. And it proved to be amazing. This book was Cruel and Beautiful at the same time the book title really fits perfectly to the story because I couldn't come up with other words to describe this. It felt like I fell in love for the first time just to get pushed over the edge of a cliff. My heart got huge with all this love for the characters just to get shredded to pieces. How can you not love Drew McKnight? Sexy and handsome doctor Drew. He is the perfect man a woman can wish for. He is loving, caring, selfless and gives everything he has body, heart and soul. And did I mention he looks yummy?! =) But even though Drew could have outshined all of the other characters, he didn't. He let them even shine brighter and that speaks a lot for him. Cate was heartbroken, lost and struggled over what she has done. With Drew at her side she was like a blooming flower. I loved how the characters in the book were written and made up. They felt so real to me and that's what I felt already when reading the Prologue. Even the Families of Drew and Cate were well written and I could really imagine them clearly in my head. Everything fitted perfectly together. Also the friends and colleagues made the story so much more real and interesting. This story is perfectly written and the time switching from the past and present was well done. This is one of the best and saddest books that I've read. It will stay with me forever. I'm an emotional person but to be honest I haven't cried this hard in a long time. This book is a whole 'nother level of sad but to be fair I have to say that this book isn't all about crying, some scenes were hilarious and I had to laugh so hard. There was so much love involved and also a lot of funny moments. Ps.: Don't judge the book by the cover because it doesn't prepare you for the heartbreak which you will experience when reading this beautifully cruel story. - I received an ARC of this book from the author through the Fifty Shades Support Group on Goodreads in exchange for a honest review. - 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. One great love story with a twist you don't see coming Von -Kunde After I finished the book I wanted to reread right away. Not wanting to give to many spoilers I would recommend this book to readers who want to read about believable characters with flaws and fears. If you liked Me Without You, you will want to read this as well. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Bewegend Von Natascha Sehr gute Story, selten hab ich bei einem Buch so sehr mitgelitten wie hier. Zwischendurch dachte ich es ist etwas langatmig, jetzt da ich fertig bin muss ich das revidieren. Genau so in der Länge war es notwendig um die Geschichte richtig erzählen zu können...
