the "New York's finest" series by Lauren Layne, and boy she didn't disappoint. As always she kept me up all night. We've met Jill and Vincent in the former two books and I couldn't wait for their book to finally hit my kindle. Jill is the sassy and good natured partner of the brooding and silent Vincent Moretti. Well, not the kind of partner Jill hopes for... More like coworker in the homicide division of the NYPD. When Jill returned from Florida after helping out her mother, Vincent can't wait to see her. She's been away for three months and he didn't think he could miss her that much. His partner was gone way too long for his taste. When he's showing up at her "welcome back" party he's up for a big surprise. Jill missed New York. After three months of the sunny Florida, she's ready to be back in her beloved job and with her adopted family, the Morettis. Well, one Moretti in particular. She was gone for a long time and a lot has changed in her life. She's been waiting for Vincent to come to his senses for ever and now she's done waiting for something that might never happen at all. I thought I knew what'll happen in the book, but Lauren Layne surprised me with the twist. I didn't see it coming at all. What made the story a lot more difficult to turn out as I wanted it to be. But, as always, she made it even better than any of my imaginations. All I can say is, that I loved this book. It had everything - humor, sass, good amount of sexual tension, suspense and a little bit of angst. You know these kind of books, the kind which could last forever? That's definitely one of those. I had such such a good time with Jill and Vin, that the end came way too soon... My advice for you guys, pick it up and start reading ASAP!!! Goodreads(...) Layne can always be counted on to create an engaging, steamy and thoroughly rewarding reading experience, and she brings all her considerable talents to bear on this third installment of her New York's Finest series. This story dwells in tiny details and unforgettable moments that combine to make this cantankerous partners-to-lovers story into something remarkable. Layne forces both her highly reserved hero, as well as his outgoing, clever heroine, to undergo some intense soul-searching, but their longing only makes their happiness that much more intense and adds considerably to an already-winning series."RT Book s"4 1/2 stars! HOT! Smart dialogue, creative plotting and an insightful, unexpected romance ensure that Layne's latest New York's Finest novel is a sure-fire success...a pitch-perfect addition to a lovely series."RT Book s on Steal Me"Layne launches the New York's Finest contemporary romance series with this stellar example of the genre. Ava and Luc's sparks are immediate, and the evolution of their relationship-which starts with little common ground except a dedication to singlehood-is stimulating and realistic. They negotiate their professional and romantic interactions with banter that's clever but not self-satisfied, and their moment of truth feels warm and real. Fans of slightly gritty contemporaries will adore this"Publishers Weekly (starred review) on Frisk Me"4 1/2 stars! The first in Layne's New York's Finest series is funny, delightfully steamy and deeply touching, setting the bar quite high. Layne creates protagonists who are fully realized and likable, ensuring that their individual journeys are as clever and moving as their romance, and her novels are always the better for it. A bustling, detailed setting and a stellar cast of supporting characters, particularly the hero's large and outspoken family, provide the perfect backdrop for her characters and keep expectations high for the rest of this soon-to-be-a-hit series."RT Book s on Frisk Me"Layne is hands down the queen of witty dialogue and sexy scenes. Frisk Me was a sensual combo of both that left me dying for more."#1 New York Times bestselling author Rachel Van Dyken"Frisk Me is a terrific love story--equal parts sweet and hot. Layne is a master of both sexual tension and the soul-satisfying HEA."Serena Bell, USA Today bestselling author"Funny, intelligent and touching."Ruthie Knox, USA Today bestselling author on After the Kiss WerbetextThe NYPD has never looked finer in the third, scorching hot book in Lauren Layne's NYPD's Finest series where the three Moretti brothers fulfill their family's NYC cop legacy and their work at the NYPD puts them directly in the line of love.
