This warning incites Darcie's very active imagination and curiosity, but she's too polite and it is not her place to pose direct questions to her employer.This story was well-written and had several quite suspenseful moments. I have added other books of this series to my wishlist.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Captivating!Von LauraDark, scary and romantic. Easy to read, intersecting plot keeping you wondering who is who in the story. Would recommend.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. An atmospheric gothic romanceVon S. FischerWhen Darcie is betrayed by her stepfather, the homeless and half-starved girl sees no choice but to seek help and a job from her older sister, a prostitute in East London's Whitechapel district. But she is sent to seek employment with Dr. Damien Cole instead. Due to her talent at drawing, she soon rises from maid to personal assistant for the doctor who is doing anatomical studies with dead bodies. But when several prostitutes are murdered, Damien is soon under suspicion because the killer obviously has anatomical knowledge and uses a surgeon's scalpel. And danger comes to Darcie because the killer is after her, too, due to her Whitechapel connections. Does their budding love have a chance against these odds and against society's rules that frown on a marriage between people from such different rank?This is a well-researched gothic novel with well-developed characters and a lot of atmosphere. I enjoyed it a lot and would generally recommend books by this author.
